The panel discussion, moderated by Boston.com's Scott Kirsner, will feature members of the private equity, government and entrepreneurial communities. Panelists will discuss M&A and financing trends in healthcare IT and share insight on which companies are making waves in this challenging vertical.

The healthcare IT panel at 2009 Fall Conference will take place from 1:45pm-2:45pm in the Harborview Ballroom of the Seaport World Trade Center.

Todd Cozzens
CEO & Vice Chairman
Picis
HIT EXPERT

Cozzens, who co-founded Picis in 1994, has more than 23 years of experience in the healthcare technology and information systems industry. It was Cozzens' original strategic vision of information systems for the high-acuity care areas of hospitals that drove the company's growth trajectory over 1,500% since 2001. Prior to Picis, he served as the president of a division of Marquette Medical Systems (now GE Healthcare) and held several other senior management positions, including vice president of sales, from 1983 to 1995. Cozzens is a graduate of Marquette University and the Harvard Business School Executive Program for Management Development. He was named Entrepreneur of the Year by Ernst & Young in 2005 and was a four-time member of the U.S. Olympic Sailing Team. Cozzens is vice chairman and a director of the company's board of directors.
