

ACG Boston's Fall Conference & Private Company Showcase

Revolutionizing Healthcare with Technology: Who is Innovating and Where Should You Invest?

Click here to

register
now

The panel discussion, moderated by Boston.com's Scott Kirsner, will feature members of the private equity, government and entrepreneurial communities. Panelists will discuss M&A and financing trends in healthcare IT and share insight on which companies are making waves in this challenging vertical.

The healthcare IT panel at 2009 Fall Conference will take place from 1:45pm-2:45pm in the Harborview Ballroom of the Seaport World Trade Center.

Peter van der Goes Jr.
Managing Director
Goldman Sachs

INVESTMENT BANKER PERSPECTIVE

Peter is a member of the healthcare group in the Investment Banking division. Peter is responsible for the group's healthcare information technology practice and co-heads the group's M&A effort. He has led transactions for multiple HCIT companies, including Emdeon, Athenahealth, and Allscripts. He joined Goldman Sachs in 1999 as an associate. He was named managing director in 2007. Earlier in his career, Peter worked at Booz Allen Hamilton.

Peter earned a JD and an MBA from the University of Pennsylvania in 1999. He earned a BA in English and a BS in Economics from the University of Pennsylvania in 1991.