

Contact:

Jason Newberg
The Castle Group
617-337-9534
jnewberg@thecastlegrp.com

ACG Boston Appoints Christy Dancause to Executive Director

BOSTON, MA – July 13, 2009 – ACG Boston has appointed Christy Dancause to executive director of the Boston Chapter of the Association for Corporate Growth (ACG). Under the direction of the board of directors, Christy will be running operations for ACG Boston, which include the oversight of conferences, seminars, roundtables, and leading regularly scheduled monthly meetings.

Christy joined ACG Boston in 2006, most recently serving as the chapter's director of events and administration.

Prior to joining ACG Boston, Christy worked for Emerson College where she ran the Off Campus Student Services Office. In this capacity, she was responsible for helping students find off-campus housing, and creating a community for off-campus students to connect with one another and the campus through events, newsletters, and social networking.

Christy, from Middleton, Massachusetts graduated from Holy Cross in 2000 where she earned a bachelor's degree in psychology.

About ACG Boston

ACG Boston (www.acgboston.org) is one of 53 local chapters around the world that form the international ACG organization, which focuses on corporate growth, corporate development, and mergers and acquisitions. ACG Boston, with close to 900 members, holds more than 40 networking and educational events per year, including monthly DealMaker's Breakfasts, Buyer's Roundtables, Corporate Development Forums, Women's Roundtables, Networking Nights, Emerging Professionals networking events, an annual M&A conference in June, an annual Private Equity and M&A Outlook conference in February, and an annual Tech M&A Awards program in December. More than 5,000 people attended ACG Boston events in the last year.

###